Security Description:

The goal of this section is to provide a clear understanding of the material rights and privileges of the securities issued by the company. Please provide the below information for each class of the company's equity securities, as applicable:

1. For common equity, describe any dividend, voting and preemption rights.

Each Common Share is entitled to one vote cast at any meeting of shareholders, and is entitled to participate in dividends and liquidation pro rata, if and when declared by the Board of Directors. There are no preemption rights.

2. For preferred stock, describe the dividend, voting, conversion, and liquidation rights as well as redemption or sinking fund provisions.

RESTATED
Certificate of Designation
Preferred Stock Class:
Special 2022 Series A Preferred Stock
Autris

DESIGNATION AND AMOUNT

The designation of this series consists of one (1) share of Special 2022 Series A Preferred Stock and is the Series A Preferred Stock (the "Series A Preferred Stock").

DIVIDENDS

The Holder of Series A Preferred Stock will not be entitled to receive dividends of any kind, including but not limited to and dividends paid on Common Stock.

CONVERSION

The Holder of the Series A Preferred Stock shall have the right to convert shares of the Series A Preferred Stock at the conversion ratio of forty-five million (45,000,000) shares of Common Stock for each single (1) share of Series A Preferred Stock. Shares of Series A Preferred Stock are anti-dilutive to reverse splits, and therefore in the case of a reverse split, are convertible to the same number of Common Shares after the reverse split as would have been prior to the reverse split. The conversion rate of the Series A Preferred Stock would increase proportionately in the case of forward splits and may not be diluted by a reverse split following a forward split.

LIQUIDATION PREFERENCE

The Series A Preferred Stock shall not have any liquidation rights with respect to liquidation preference upon the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation.

VOTING RIGHTS

If at least one share of Series A Preferred Stock is issued and outstanding, then the total aggregate issued shares of Series A Preferred Stock at any given time, regardless of their number, shall have voting rights equal to three (3) times the sum of: The total number of shares of Common Stock which are issued and outstanding at the time of voting, plus, the total number of votes granted to any preferred stock series which are issued and outstanding at the time of voting

Each individual share of Series A Preferred Stock shall have the voting rights equal to three times the sum of all shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding at the time of voting plus the cumulative voting rights of all preferred stock series issued and outstanding at the time of voting divided by the number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock issued and outstanding at the time of voting.

Certificate of Designation
Preferred Stock Class:
Series B
Autris

DESIGNATION AND AMOUNT

The designation of this series consists of five million (5,000,000) shares of Preferred Stock and is the Series B Preferred Stock (the "Series B Preferred Stock").

DIVIDENDS

The Holder of Series B Preferred Stock will not be entitled to receive dividends of any kind when, and if, declared by the Board of Directors at their sole discretion.

CONVERSION

- a. The Holder of the Series B Preferred Stock shall have the right, from time to time, to convert shares of the Series B Preferred Stock at the conversion ratio of five (5) shares of Common Stock for each single (1) share of Series B Preferred Stock. Shares of Series B Preferred Stock are anti-dilutive to reverse splits, and therefore in the case of a reverse split, are convertible to the same number of Common Shares after the reverse split as would have been equal to the ratio herein prior to the reverse split. The conversion rate of the Series B Preferred Stock would increase proportionately in the case of forward splits, and may not be diluted by a reverse split following a forward split.
- b. If at any time or times after the issuance of Series B Preferred Stock to the Holder, the Company proposes for any reason to register any shares of its Common Stock for public sale under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (whether in connection with a public offering of securities by the Company, a secondary offering of securities by stockholders of the Company, or both), the Company will promptly give written notice thereof to the Holder, such notice to include a brief description of the proposed registration and offering including the total proposed size, other anticipated selling shareholders, identity of the underwriter (if any), and anticipated range of offering prices. Within ten (10) days after receipt of such notice, the Holder may elect in writing to include a portion of his Series B Preferred Stock converted into the Company's Common Shares (including all vested options to purchase shares) for sale and registration in such proposed offering, in which case the Company will effect the registration under the Securities Act of 1933 of all such shares (and options) requested by the Holder up to the total number of the Holder's shares (including options). The Company shall not be required to include any shares of the Holder unless the Holder accepts the standard and customary terms of the underwriting as reasonably agreed upon by the Company and the managing underwriter(s) for such offering. The Company will bear all costs associated with the inclusion of the Holder's shares in any offering.

LIQUIDATION PREFERENCE

The Series B Preferred Stock shall have liquidation rights with respect to liquidation preference upon the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, either voluntary or involuntary equal to the number of shares of Common Stock as if all Series B Preferred Shares remaining issued and outstanding were converted to Common Stock.

VOTING RIGHTS - Each share of Series B Preferred Stock shall have ten (10) votes for any election or other vote placed before the shareholders of the Company.

Waiver. Notwithstanding any provision in this Certificate of Designation to the contrary, any provision contained herein and any right of the Holder of Series B Preferred Stock granted hereunder may be waived as to all shares of Series B Preferred Stock (and the Holder thereof) upon the written consent of the Holder.

Certificate of Designation
Preferred Stock Class:
Series C
Autris

DESIGNATION AND AMOUNT

The designation of this series consists of five million (5,000,000) shares of Preferred Stock and is the Series C Preferred Stock (the "Series C Preferred Stock").

DIVIDENDS

The Holder of Series C Preferred Stock will not be entitled to receive dividends of any kind when, and if, declared by Board of Directors at their sole discretion.

CONVERSION

- c. The Holder of the Series C Preferred Stock shall have the right, from time to time, to convert shares of the Series C Preferred Stock at the conversion ratio of thirty (30) shares of Common Stock for each single (1) share of Series C Preferred Stock. Shares of Series C Preferred Stock are anti-dilutive to reverse splits, and therefore in the case of a reverse split, are convertible to the same number of Common Shares after the reverse split as would have been equal to the ratio herein prior to the reverse split. The conversion rate of the Series C Preferred Stock would increase proportionately in the case of forward splits, and may not be diluted by a reverse split following a forward split.
- d. If at any time or times after the issuance of Series C Preferred Stock to the Holder, the Company proposes for any reason to register any shares of its Common Stock for public sale under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (whether in connection with a public offering of securities by the Company, a secondary offering of securities by stockholders of the Company, or both), the Company will promptly give written notice thereof to the Holder, such notice to include a brief description of the proposed registration and offering including the total proposed size, other anticipated selling shareholders, identity of the underwriter (if any), and anticipated range of offering prices. Within ten (10) days after receipt of such notice, the Holder may elect in writing to include a portion of his Series B Preferred Stock converted into the Company's Common Shares (including all vested options to purchase shares) for sale and registration in such proposed offering, in which case the Company will effect the registration under the Securities Act of 1933 of all such shares (and options) requested by the Holder up to the total number of the Holder's shares (including options). The Company shall not be required to include any shares of the Holder unless the Holder accepts the standard and customary terms of the underwriting as reasonably agreed upon by the Company and the managing underwriter(s) for such offering. The Company will bear all costs associated with the inclusion of the Holder's shares in any offering.

LIQUIDATION PREFERENCE

The Series C Preferred Stock shall have liquidation rights with respect to liquidation preference upon the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, either voluntary or involuntary equal to the number of shares of Common Stock as if all Series C Preferred Shares remaining issued and outstanding were converted to Common Stock.

VOTING RIGHTS - Each share of Series C Preferred Stock shall have one (1) vote for any election or other vote placed before the shareholders of the Company.

Waiver.

Notwithstanding any provision in this Certificate of Designation to the contrary, any provision contained herein and any right of the Holder of Series C Preferred Stock granted hereunder may be waived as to all shares of Series C Preferred Stock (and the Holder thereof) upon the written consent of the Holder.

4) Issuer's Business, Products and Services

The purpose of this section is to provide a clear description of the issuer's current operations. Ensure that these descriptions are updated on the Company's Profile on www.OTCMarkets.com.

A. Summarize the issuer's business operations (If the issuer does not have current operations, state "no operations")

Autris, through its wholly owned subsidiaries, EcoVillages Design, S.A and Veritas Village Holdings Panama, S.A, operates as a designer, developer, and builder of self-sustainability oriented communities throughout Latin America. In addition, Autris holds interests in parcels of agroforestry land under Vida Verde Holdings Panama, S.A., as more fully described below:

EcoVillages Design, S.A

EcoVillages creates freedom and self sustainability-oriented communities throughout Latin America and the Caribbean region for the rapidly growing market of freedom seeking home owners to enjoy. In today's divisive world, we create non-divisive, freedom and sustainability-oriented communities that use EcoSensible (not EcoFanatic) methods to save our clients money and provide them with a high degree of self-sustainability while living among like-minded people.

With amenities such as community orchards and gardens, livestock stables and tilapia ponds for local food production and processing; clean and natural in-community water sources and alternative energy generation for the homes, EcoVillages provide our clients with a great place to live, to invest or to have a "Plan B" landing pad if where they are living now becomes intolerable.

EcoVillages bases our communities on our F.I.R.S.T. Philosophy for creating intentional communities based on Freedom, Independence, Resiliency, Sustainability and Transparency. As the designer of the Veritas Villages community brand, EcoVillages is setting the standard for freedom-oriented and self-reliant, luxury living in beautiful tropical locations.

Veritas Village Holdings, Panama, S.A

Veritas Village - Coronado, is an 87-homesite community development situated on 19.2 hectares located in the Coronado area of Panama. It includes a mix of large, medium and tiny homes, rental units, commercial areas, community orchards and gardens, and a variety of on-site amenities. The spirit of the community is to bring together like-minded individuals, that have a desire to live with personal and financial freedom and self-reliance as a top priority.

The Veritas Village brand is heavily focused on self-sustainability and reducing your reliance on governments, big corporations and undesirable worldly events, bringing freedom back to individuals. These communities will be repeated throughout Latin America to provide opportunities for people to live in various regions to restore their personal freedoms.

Veritas Village - Coronado is located just a short 10-minute drive up the mountain from the very popular expat favorite town of Coronado, Panama and the surrounding beautiful Pacific Ocean beaches, and sits at a perfect 250 to 350 meters (roughly 1000 feet) above sea level, making it have not only the ideal location and climate to grow food year round but also maintains a year round excellent temperature for people to enjoy as well.

Vida Verde Holdings Panama, S.A

Vida Verde Holdings Panama, S.A ("Agroforestry") is a teak and avocado farm that provides a long-term investment opportunity that also qualifies the investor to apply for a second residency. The total size of the farm is 60 acres and has a total of 54 half-acre parcels available for investors, with the remaining area reserved for development. As of this statement, the available parcels are sold out and AgroForestry has purchased the next farm and begun preparing it for teak and avocado. The mix of teak, with a long-term return and avocado with a shorter-term yield provides a potential steady income over the 20-25 year cycle of the teak trees. At which point, the teak trees can be harvested and replanted again. At the time of harvest, Vida Verde will charge a service fee as a percentage of the earnings of the harvest of each parcel.

A major benefit to those who invest in Agroforestry, is the second residency application opportunity. Investment in Vida Verde's current Agroforestry parcels qualifies an investor to apply for an investor residency in the country of Nicaragua. A tranquil and beautiful country filled with lakes, ocean beaches, friendly people and beautiful tropical landscapes, and a country which did not impose lock-downs or mask mandates during COVID. Having a "Plan-B" residency in a country like Nicaragua is highly beneficial in the political landscape of today's world.

The Vida Verde Agroforestry Cosiguina Farm location was chosen for this unique Agroforestry opportunity for several reasons. The climate of the northern Nicaraguan Pacific coast has the ideal mix of wet and dry season required for both teak and avocado to flourish. Teak grown in climates that are too dry do not survive or have stunted growth. Teak grown in climates that are too wet do not produce the quality of wood desired. The volcanic soil in the area is rich in nitrogen and other nutrients making this location the perfect place for an avocado/teak agroforest. The village of El Rosario nearby desperately needs the employment offered by the farm. It is a spectacularly beautiful location to not only reforest a previous peanut plantation but to potentially live at and enjoy the surroundings.

B. List any subsidiaries, parent company, or affiliated companies.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements of Autris (the "Company") have been prepared by management. Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so. Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements (unaudited)

1. ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Autris, through its wholly owned subsidiaries, acquires ,designs, develops and constructs sustainable communities throughout Central America and the Carribean. The company holds sustainable investments in Teak and Avocado Plantations in Nicaragua through its wholly owned subsidiary Vida Verde Holdings Panama S.A.

Autris (the “Company”) was incorporated in the State of Nevada on February 28, 2000 as Big Sky Productions, Inc. The Company filed a Certificate of Amendment with the Nevada Secretary of State on January 6, 2014 effecting the name change to Autris, Inc.

Corporate Administration

The address of the Company’s office is Balboa Office Center, Apto 18C1, Avenida Balboa Y Calle 27, Panama City, Republic of Panama. The Company’s common shares are traded on the Over The Counter Market (“OTC”) under the ticker symbol “AUTR” .

2. Basis of Presentation

These consolidated financial statements, including comparatives, have been prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standards (“IAS”) using accounting policies consistent with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”) and Interpretations of the International Financial Reporting Interpretation Committee (“IFRIC”). The policies applied in these consolidated financial statements are based on IFRS issued as of January 1, 2023. The functional currency is the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates. The functional currency determination was conducted through an analysis of the consideration factors identified in IAS 21. The functional currency for the Company and its subsidiaries is the United States dollar. The presentation currency for the Company is the United States dollar. Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency of the respective entity or division, using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions (spot exchange rate).

Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the re-measurement of monetary items denominated in foreign currency at period-end exchange rates are recognized in profit or loss. Non-monetary items that are not re-translated at period end are measured at historical cost (translated using the exchange rates at the transaction date), except for non-monetary items measured at fair value, which are translated using the exchange rates as at the date when fair value was determined. Gains and losses are recorded in profit or loss.

These unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting, and fair value accounting where appropriate, except for cash flow information.

3. Material Accounting Policies

Principles of consolidation

These consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries.

Autris consolidates subsidiaries controlled by the Company. Control exists when the Company is exposed, or has the rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the subsidiaries and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the subsidiaries. The financial results of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated financial statements from the date that control commences until the date that control ceases. All intercompany balances, transactions, revenues, and expenses are eliminated.

Going Concern

These unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going-concern basis, which implies that the Corporation will continue realizing its assets and discharging its liabilities in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future. As reflected in the unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements, the Corporation is in the process of ramping up its activities. During the year ended June 30th, 2024 the Corporation recorded comprehensive net income of $354,097, and an increase in shareholders equity to $5,046,909. As at June 30th, 2024 however, the Corporation had a accumulated deficit of $1,194,183 since inception and a relatively short history of profitability. Accordingly, the ability of the Corporation to realize the carrying value of its assets and continue operations as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to generate sustainable future profitable operations. Management anticipates that the generation of revenues from its planned development community located in Chame District, Panama will enable the Corporation to achieve profitability. There is no assurance that any of these initiatives will be successful. Factors within and outside the Corporation's control could have a significant bearing on its ability to obtain additional financing or on the generation of revenues. These unaudited consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments related to the carrying values and classifications of assets and liabilities that would be necessary should the Corporation be unable to continue as a going concern. Such adjustments could be material.

a) Basis of measurement

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared using the measurement basis specified by IFRS for each type of asset, liability, revenue and expenses

b) Significant judgments, estimates, and assumptions

The preparation of the Company's consolidated financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make judgments, estimates, and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period.

The following notes are an integral part of these consolidated financial statements

Estimates and assumptions are continually evaluated and are based on management's experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Accounting policy choices that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in these consolidated financial statements are as follows:

Determination of functional currency

The Company determines the functional currency through an analysis of several indicators such as expenses and cash flow, financing activities, retention of operating cash flows, and frequency of transactions within the reporting entity.

Digital assets and inventory

The Company's Digital Assets consist of Bitcoin, Ethereum and Solana, which are recorded at fair value using the revaluation model under IAS 38 with changes in fair value recorded in other comprehensive income. There was significant judgement applied by the Company in making this assessment as accounting for cryptocurrencies depends on the nature of the asset, the use of the asset including the expected timeline or use, and how the asset is held. This judgement included consideration of the operations, strategy and intent of management.

Contingencies

The Company accrues for estimated loss contingencies related to legal and regulatory matters when available information indicates that is probable a liability has been incurred and the Company can reasonably estimate the amount of that loss. In many proceedings, however, it is inherently difficult to determine whether any loss is probable or even possible or to estimate the amount of any loss. In addition, even where a loss is possible or an exposure to loss exists in excess of the liability already accrued, it is often not possible to reasonably estimate the size of the possible loss or range of loss possible or additional losses.

The following notes are an integral part of these consolidated financial statements

Impairment of non-financial assets

The Company performs impairment testing annually for non-financial assets, as well as when circumstances indicate that there may be impairment for these assets. Management judgement is involved in determining if there are circumstances indicating that testing for impairment is required.

The Company assesses impairment by comparing the recoverable amount of a long-lived asset to its carrying value. The recoverable amount is defined as the higher of: (i) value in use; or (ii) fair value less cost to sell. The determination of the recoverable amount involves management judgement and estimation. These estimates and assumptions could affect the Company's future results if the current estimates of future performance and fair values change.

Estimation uncertainty

The following are key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty that have a significant risk of resulting in a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets and liabilities within the next financial year:

Useful life of property and equipment, and intangible assets

Property and equipment, and intangible assets are depreciated over their estimated useful lives. Estimated useful lives are determined based on current facts and past experience and take into consideration the anticipated physical life of the asset, the potential for technological obsolescence, and regulations. Accordingly, these estimates are subject to measurement uncertainty.

Digital asset and inventory valuation

Digital assets are measured at fair value using the quoted price on Coinmarketcap. Coinmarketcap is a pricing aggregator, as the principal market or most advantageous market is not always known. The Company believes any price difference amongst the principal market and an aggregated price to be immaterial. Management considers this fair value to be a Level 2 input under IFRS 13 Fair Value

The following notes are an integral part of these consolidated financial statements

Measurement fair value hierarchy as the price on this source represents an average of quoted prices on multiple digital currency exchanges.

Earnings per share

The calculation of earnings per common share is based on the reported net income divided by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per share is calculated on the treasury stock basis. Where potentially dilutive equity instruments are anti-dilutive, basic and diluted earnings per share are the same.

Share based compensation

Estimating fair value for granted stock options, warrants, and other equity instruments, requires determining the most appropriate valuation model which is dependent on the terms and conditions of the grant. The company utilizes the Black-Scholes options pricing model. This estimate also requires determining the most appropriate input to the valuation model including the expected life of the option, volatility, dividend yield, and rate of forfeitures and making assumptions about them. As such, management's assessment of the above inputs could be affected, if material changes in assumptions occurred. Accordingly, these estimates are subject to measurement uncertainty.

Business Combinations

Acquisitions of businesses are accounted for using the acquisition method. The consideration transferred in a business combination is measured at fair value, which is calculated as the sum of the acquisition-date fair values of assets transferred by the Company, liabilities incurred by the Company to the former owners of the acquiree and the equity interest issued by the Company in exchange for control of the acquiree. Acquisition-related costs are recognized in profit or loss as incurred.

Goodwill is measured as the excess of the sum of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interests (if any) in the acquiree, and the fair value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree (if any) over the net of the acquisition-date amounts of the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed. If, after reassessment, the net of the acquisition-date amounts of the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed exceeds the sum of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree and the fair value of the acquirer's previously held interest in the acquiree (if any), the excess is recognized immediately in profit or loss as a bargain purchase gain.

When the consideration transferred by the Company in a business combination includes a contingent consideration arrangement, the contingent consideration is measured at its acquisition date fair value, and included as part of the consideration transferred in a business combination.

Changes in fair value of the contingent consideration that qualify as measurement period adjustments are adjusted retrospectively, with corresponding adjustments against goodwill.

Measurement period adjustments are adjustments that arise from additional information obtained during the 'measurement period' (which cannot exceed one year from the acquisition date) about facts and circumstances that existed at the acquisition date. The subsequent accounting for changes in the fair value of the contingent consideration that do not qualify as measurement period adjustments depends on how the contingent consideration is classified. Contingent consideration that is classified as equity is not remeasured at subsequent reporting dates and its subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity. Other contingent consideration is remeasured to fair value at subsequent reporting dates with changes in fair value recognized in profit or loss.

c) Basis of consolidation

These consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries. Control exists when the Company has the power, directly or indirectly, to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities. The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its direct wholly-owned subsidiaries. All significant inter-company transactions and balances have been eliminated.

The following notes are an integral part of these consolidated financial statements

Consolidated subsidiaries:

| Name of Subsidiary | Place of Incorporation | Ownership |
|--------------------------------------|-------------------------------|------------------|
| Veritas Village Holdings, Panama S.A | Panama | 100% |
| EcoVillages Designs, S.A | Panama | 100% |
| EcoVillages LLC | Wyoming, United States | 100% |
| Vida Verda Holdings Panama S.A | Panama | 100% |

d) Digital Assets

The Company's digital assets consist of Bitcoin, Ethereum and Solana. Digital assets meet the definition of intangible assets in IAS 38 Intangible Assets as they are identifiable non-monetary assets without physical substance. They are initially recorded at cost and subsequently remeasured using the revaluation method. Under the revaluation method, increases in fair value are recorded in other comprehensive income, while decreases are recorded in profit or loss. The Company revalues its digital assets at the end of each month. There is no recycling of gains from other comprehensive income to profit or loss. However, to the extent that an increase in fair value reverses a previous decrease in fair value that has been recorded in profit or loss, that increase is recorded in profit or loss. Decreases in fair value that reverse gains previously recorded in other comprehensive income are recorded in other comprehensive income.

e) Property, Plant and Equipment

The Company's Land, Property and Equipment items are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses with the exception of land, which does not depreciate. Depreciation is recognized using the following annual rates:

The following notes are an integral part of these consolidated financial statements

| | Estimated Useful Lives |
|------------------------|------------------------|
| Furniture and Fixtures | 5 - 10 years |
| Computer Equipment | 3 - 5 years |
| Vehicles | 5 - 10 years |
| Machinery | 10-15 years |
| Land | Not depreciated |

Property and equipment that is withdrawn from use or has no reasonable prospect of being recovered through use or sale, are regularly identified and written off.

The assets' residual values, depreciation methods and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at each reporting date.

Subsequent expenditure relating to an item of property and equipment is capitalized when it is probable that future economic benefits from the use of the assets will be increased. All other subsequent expenditures are recognized as repairs and maintenance expenses.

e) Goodwill

Goodwill is initially measured at cost, being the excess of the consideration transferred over the net identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed in a business combination. If this consideration is lower than the fair value of the net assets acquired, the difference is recognized as a gain for the period. After initial recognition, goodwill is recognized at cost less any accumulated impairment losses.

Goodwill is tested for impairment annually or more frequently when circumstances indicate that the carrying value may be impaired. Impairment is determined by assessing the recoverable amount of each operating segment to which the goodwill relates. Where the recoverable amount of the operating segment (including the carrying value of the allocated goodwill) is less than the carrying value, an impairment loss is recognized. Impairment losses relating to goodwill cannot be reversed in future periods.

The following notes are an integral part of these consolidated financial statements

f) Foreign Currency Translation

The Company's consolidated financial statements are presented in United States dollars, the parent Company's functional currency. Each entity in the Company determines its own functional currency and items included in the financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency.

g) Non-Monetary Transactions

Where the Company is settling a liability for the purchase of goods and services where the price was established in a fiat currency, the difference between the liability settled and the fair value of the digital assets transferred is recognized as a gain or loss on settlement. Otherwise, the transaction is measured based on the fair value of the digital assets exchanged. Any difference between the fair value of the digital assets exchanged and the carrying amount of the digital assets is recognized in profit and loss.

l) Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue when it has persuasive evidence of a contract, performance obligations have been identified and satisfied, payment items have been identified, and it is probable that the Company will collect.

j) Share Based Transactions

Equity-settled share-based payment transactions with parties other than employees are measured at the fair value of the goods or services received, except where that fair value cannot be estimated reliably, in which case they are measured at the fair value of the equity instruments granted, measured at the date the entity obtains the goods or the counterparty renders the service.

The Company uses a fair value-based method (Black-Scholes Option Pricing Model) for all share options granted to directors, employees and non-employees. For directors and employees, the fair value of the share options is measured at the date of grant. For grants to non-employees where the fair value of the goods or services is not determinable, the fair value of the share options is measured on the date the services are received.

The following notes are an integral part of these consolidated financial statements

The fair value of share-based payments is charged to profit or loss, with the offsetting credit to contributed surplus. For directors, employees and consultants, the share options are recognized over the vesting period based on the best available estimate of the number of share options expected to vest. If options vest immediately, the expense is recognized when the options are issued. Estimates are subsequently revised if there is any indication that the number of share options expected to vest differs from previous estimates. Any cumulative adjustment prior to vesting is recognized in the current period. No adjustment is made to any expense recognized in prior periods where the options have vested. For non-employees, the share options are recognized over the related service period. When share options are exercised, the amounts previously recognized in contributed surplus are transferred to share capital.

k) Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes under FASB ASC 740-10, which requires use of the liability method. FASB ASC 740-10-25 provides that deferred tax assets and liabilities are recorded based on the differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes, referred to as temporary differences.

Autris had a previous history of operating losses, however the historical federal net operating loss was lost upon the subsequent reactivation of the company. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been recorded. In addition, no benefit for income taxes has been recorded due to the uncertainty of the realization of any tax assets.

l) Related Party Transactions

Parties are considered to be related if one party has the ability, directly or indirectly, to control the other party or exercise significant influence over the other party in making financial and operating decisions. Parties are also considered to be related if they are subject to common control or common significant influence. Related parties may be individuals or corporate entities. A transaction is considered to be a related party transaction when there is a transfer of resources or obligations between related parties.

The following notes are an integral part of these consolidated financial statements

m) Leases

The Company assesses whether a contract is or contains a lease, which is the right to control the leased asset's use, at the inception of a contract. The Company recognizes a ROU asset and a corresponding lease liability with respect to all lease arrangements in which it is the lessee, at the commencement of the lease, with the following exceptions: (i) the Company has elected not to recognize ROU assets and liabilities for leases where the total lease term is less than or equal to 12 months, or (ii) for leases of low value. The payments for such leases are recognized in the consolidated statement of loss and comprehensive loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The ROU asset is initially measured based on the present value of lease payments, lease payments made at or before the commencement day, and any initial direct costs. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses. The ROU asset is depreciated over the shorter of the lease term or the useful life of the underlying asset. The ROU asset is subject to testing for impairment if there is an indicator of impairment.

The lease liability is initially measured at the present value of lease payments that are not paid at the commencement date, discounted by using the rate implicit in the lease. If this rate cannot be readily determined, the Company uses its incremental borrowing rate. Lease payments include fixed payments less any lease incentives, and any variable lease payments where variability depends on an index or rate. When the lease contains an extension or purchase option that the Company considers reasonably certain to be exercised, the cost of the option is included in the lease payments.

ROU assets are presented separately from property and equipment, and the lease liability is presented as a separate line in the consolidated statement of financial position. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or rate are not included in the measurement of the ROU asset and lease liability. The related payments are recognized as an expense in the period in which the triggering event occurs and are included in the consolidated statement of loss and comprehensive loss.

17. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENT RISK AND CAPITAL MANGEMENT

The Company may be exposed to various financial risks, which could affect its ability to achieve its strategic objectives. The main objectives of the Company's risk management strategy is to ensure that risks are properly identified and that the capital base is adequate in relation to those risks.

The Company's approach to managing financial risk is to ensure that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet liabilities when due. The Company may seek additional financing through debt or equity offerings, but there can be no assurance that such financing will be available on terms acceptable to the Company or at all. Any equity offering will result in dilution to the ownership interests of the Company's shareholders and may result in dilution to the value of such interests.

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a financial instrument will fail to discharge an obligation and cause the other party to incur a financial loss. The Company's primary exposure to credit risk is on its bank accounts and receivables. The bank accounts are mainly held with a major U.S bank and through the Panamanian Subsidiary of a Central and South American regional banking group, rated BBB+ by Moodys and Pacific Credit Rating (PCR) with a positive outlook, reducing the risk to the Company. Bank balances in the U.S are insured up to $250,000 through the FDIC. Receivables are due primarily from customers for land and house purchases
